

Customer Management — [All Register]

① All

- It will list all customers registered in the system
- User can click on a specific customer and view more details about the customer and all document under the customer

② Register

- Registration of a new customer will be done
- User will be required to fill in details of the customer
- Once finished, it will be saved.
- Entry will be assigned a new reference number
- * Files can only be saved when all compulsory details and files attached.
- * Once user is registered details of the user will just be fetched during application registration

*